Dr. Raj is first and foremost a humanitarian. Not surprising or unusual a trait to be found in one who is a Doctor, but his passion to help people goes beyond medicine. Raj is a man with an easy infectious laugh who doesn't take himself too seriously but is very serious about helping THOUSANDS live lives of joy and abundance - Through Meditation, laughter Yoga, Retreats, Conferences etc. Raj is constantly finding new ways to deliver his FEEL good message to the world. I think he will one day win a Nobel Peace Prize. A wonderful generous man, Raj is someone you will want to call your friend. Frankie

Raj is a truly inspiring person - the world needs people like Raj - a pleasure to be connected

Les Rogers Author, TV Producer, Scottsdale, AZ

Raj lives to make our existence more fulfilling through health and peace. He just wants us all to Shine to our utmost. It doesn't get much better than that.
Thank you Raj.

Raj, is a very professional, friendly, caring, wonderful type of guy. I would highly recommend connecting with him. He's very helpful and will go out of his way to help others. Raj definitely thinks outside the box and like he says "I am a quick learner." My team and I wish him ALL the best in all his future endeavors.

Respectfully,
Kymberly

A really inspiring man with a vision that is so much bigger than any one person. A highly skilled and educated man, whom is open to alternative therapies and mindsets - a refreshing change! Connect with Raj as everyone will benefit from the future projects that he has in store... so watch this space! Raj really understands the meaning of love, health and happiness.

My first telephone conversation with Raj was almost like being with an old friend. We laughed (so much I nearly cried at one point!) , interspersed with sharing ideas and knowledge and also some serious discussion. His infectious laugh is wonderful.

I feel really blessed to have made contact with Raj through ecademy as we share so many interests and skype makes this all so possible! I am delighted to become part of his network and hope I can help him fulfill his mission to bring happiness to many people.

Raj is one of the most gently inspiring people I have met. He is willing to listen, willing to speak to you in your language, willing to offer hope and encouragement, ideas and suggestions and willing to share his insight, wisdom and wellspring of energy with you.

It is easy to call Raj a friend. He is, however, much more than that. He is a guide, a mentor, a teacher, a coach, a student, a peer, a willing learner, an eager listener... he transforms, transmutes, transfigures, translates and transduces change in a gentle, non-threatening, easily identifiable way. His laughter is a harmonic melody of joy and his happiness is infectious. Just talk with him for a few minutes and you will feel as if your whole day has positively changed.

Love, light and blessings - Jean
